

A look at the Journal of Geography...

- The primary geography education journal in the United States
- A publication of the National Council for Geographic Education (NCGE)
- Currently on the 114th volume
- Published six times per year
- Audience includes K-12 teachers as well as those involved in geography and geography education

Types of submissions

- Research-based articles
- Comments (essays)
- Symposium (group of commentaries)
- Reviews

Other notes:

- Chicago Style (15th edition)
- Author pays for color illustrations
- Maximum (generally) of 25 pages for submissions

Word Cloud from Jerry T. Mitchell, Carmen P. Brysch & Larianne Collins (2015) Journal of Geography Key Words: Trends and Recommendations, Journal of Geography, 114:6, 247-253.

What's "Typical"-

- Number of research-based articles per issue– 3
- Length– 12 pages (range: 8-26)
- Number of references– 40 (range: 18-88)
- Number of authors– 2

SPECIAL AP Human Geography– one previous special edition and one currently in development

Presence of Visuals in JOG Research Articles

■ TABLE ■ MAP ■ FIGURES ■ GRAPHS ■ PHOTOGRAPHS